

In This Issue

- ◆ Role of women journalists in society praised
- ◆ Women empowerment reforms
- ◆ Women's role in economic stability demanded
- ◆ Opportunities for female youth vital for Pakistan's economic stability: Abduleeb Abbas
- ◆ Gender discrimination in Pakistan
- ◆ Shaping Pakistan; Women changing the political dynamics
- ◆ A platform to bridge gender gap in tech sector
- ◆ The need for gender budgeting : Part-I

Na Speaker praises role of women

The News

ISLAMABAD: Speaker National Assembly Asad Qaiser has said that the "Back Benchers Day" will be observed to encourage the participation of the members of National Assembly in the proceedings of the House during the session. "The participation ... Read More

Maliha Abidi: Empowering Pakistani women one illustration at a time

The Express Tribune

KARACHI: "I'm a feminist." You've probably heard this sentence about a dozen times. But to Maliha Abidi, it means a lot more. The 23-year-old artist hails from England and her Instagram page caught our eye, thanks to her beautiful and insightful murals of famous ... Read More

Conference highlights major achievements by women

The News (January 27, 2019)

A galaxy of women, both from Pakistan and overseas, who have struggled against heavy odds and achieved enviable positions in their respective fields narrated their success stories at the Ninth International Women Leader' Summit at a hotel ... Read More

In Pakistan's Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, girls education still suffering

The Gulf News (January 26, 2019)

Islamabad: In its second consecutive term, the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) government in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KP) has failed to ensure school education for all the girls in the province. ... Read More

On your bikes!

Dawn News

WHENEVER I have written about Pakistan's economic and social woes, some readers have asked me to discuss the solutions, and not just highlight the problems. Frankly, the remedial measures required are not exactly ... Read More

Why female Pashtun activists matter for PTM

The Asia Times

In the 1870s a number of highly educated Russian women supported a populist revolutionary movement and established a new tradition of women's active participation in politics, organizing study circles in all four corners ... Read More

Feminism is for everyone

The Express Tribune

Nearly a century ago, women finally won the right to vote in the US. Although much has been achieved since, there is still a long way to go to bring them true and full equality. In Pakistan, women constitute around 48% of ... Read More

Role of women journalists in society praised

The Express Tribune

QUETTA: Adviser to the Balochistan Chief Minister on Sports, Culture and Youth Affairs Abdul Khaliq Hazara has highlighted the importance of media in the development of society, saying the face of Pakistani media is being ... Read More

Women empowerment reforms

The Dawn

THE obvious is often obscure, it seems. The state of affairs regarding women's rights has hardly ever been a matter of pressing concern for our masters. Yet ornamented rhetoric has taken over grass-root reforms, and ...Read More

Women's role in economic stability demanded

The News

ISLAMABAD: There is a dire need to inculcate self-confidence and self-belief in the female youth leaders to improve participation of women in the future of Pakistan's economic stability. These remarks were made by ... Read More

Opportunities for female youth vital for Pakistan's economic stability: Abbleeb Abbas

The Pakistan Today

ISLAMABAD: Parliamentary Secretary for Foreign Affairs Abbleeb Abbas has said that opportunities for channelling the potential and talent of the country's female youth are pertinent to improve participation of women in the ... Read More

Gender discrimination in Pakistan

The Daily Times

Gender discrimination refers to unfair treatment or inequitable difference between distinct groups of people in society in terms of rights, opportunities and status. It goes without saying that gender discrimination is a ...Read More

Shaping Pakistan; Women changing the political dynamics

The Daily Times

Census 2017 in Pakistan makes us realize that actually we are less than 50 percent but our impact is much larger on the polity. The often-romanticized role of women in the lives of powerful men has over shadowed the efforts of ... Read More

A platform to bridge gender gap in tech sector

The News

KARACHI : Noreen Naz took a huge risk leaving a comfortable school job to enrol in a course to learn a skill she had never heard of before, yet a skill that has and continues to significantly alter how we live, communicate and socialise. ... Read More

The need for gender budgeting : Part-I

The News

Why does gender budgeting need to be reintroduced in Pakistan? We all know about the lofty policy statements made by governments about the promotion of gender equality. Given those, why is there a need for gender budgeting?...Read More

