ABOUT CPDI

The Centre for Peace and Development Initiatives (CPDI) is an independent, non-partisan and a not-for-profit civil society organization working on issues of peace and development in Pakistan. It is registered under Section 42 of the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984). It seeks to inform and influence public policies and civil society initiatives through research-based advocacy and capacity building to promote citizenship, build peace, improve governance, and achieve inclusive and sustainable development. Areas of special sectoral focus include promoting peace and tolerance, police reforms, right to information, strong local governments, climate change and mitigation, transparency in governance, democratic values, rule of law, accountable governance in the country and public health initiatives.

ABOUT THE ASSIGNMENT

1. BACKGROUND

The Centre for Peace and Development Initiatives (CPDI) requires the services of an experienced production firm (Firm) to create a documentary on project in KP and Punjab. The documentary will highlight the importance of LG system in KP and Punjab. The other documentary will shed light on the success of citizens for good governance project in strengthening public demand for inclusive and accountable local Government system and will capture the complete process of project journey in Punjab

2. KEY TASKS

The Firm will be responsible for:

1. Research and Script Writing: The Firm will research and develop the script for the documentary. CPDI will facilitate the process by providing technical support and will review and approve the final script.
2. Filming and Production: The Firm will be responsible to shoot high quality video (4K format) at different locations in Punjab, Pakistan. The shots will include project stakeholders (including the government of Punjab, CSOs, PWDs, Women, youth, transgenders, religious minorities, journalists, bloggers, university students and faculty members), and other visuals intended to illustrate the importance of Local Government, Right to information Act and Gender and Social Inclusion. The documentary should reflect the successes of the project and the firm will be working in close coordination with partner CSOs and CPDI team.
3. Narration and Voiceover: The Firm will provide a narrator with an engaging and expressive voice for documentary voiceover in English. CPDI will evaluate and approve the narrator out of the options provided by the Firm.
4. Background music and animation/illustrations: The firm will be responsible to provide non-copyright background music for the documentary. Moreover, the Firm will develop animation(s) or illustration(s), as required under the script to make the documentary appealing.
5. Subtitles and translation: The firm will be responsible to provide subtitles and translations of languages other than English, such as Punjabi and Urdu. CPDI will approve the translations.
6. Final Product: The Firm will provide the final product in 4K.
